ZIMBABWE: RISING FROM THE RUINS?

When it seemed clear that the vote was to be stolen in August 2018, protesters and ordinary people in the street were shot down in cold blood by the army with live ammunition. Those innocent and unarmed people did not rise. But Zimbabwe can. We want to convey this great hope to you.

Fergal Keane OBE, currently the BBC's highly acclaimed Africa correspondent, has reported from some of the world's major trouble spots. His awards include an OBE for services to journalism, a BAFTA and Amnesty International's Reporter of the Year. He is the author of nine books and co-author of one.

Chief Nhlanhla Felix Ndiweni succeeded his late father as Paramount Chief of Zimbabwe's Ndiweni people in 2014. He was sent to London in 1981 to study engineering, management/local governance and law. He is committed to bringing independence and an end to poverty to his people through individual property rights.

Dr John Sentamu, the Archbishop of York and an MCF Patron. He studied law in Kampala before becoming an advocate of the Supreme Court of Uganda. He was imprisoned briefly by the regime of President Idi Amin and fled to the UK in 1974. In 2005 he was appointed Archbishop of York.

Ben Freeth MBE focuses on the restoration of justice, human rights, the rule of law and property rights for all in Zimbabwe. His presentations on the situation in his country are highly regarded and he has testified twice before the House of Representatives in the US. He has authored two books.

Gift Konjana MP is a lion-hearted man of huge courage. He has been to jail 36 times in his quest to bring justice and hope to oppressed and hopeless people. In a nail biting saga fraught with massive danger and befitting of a thriller novel he has recently been elected an MP for the MDC Alliance. He is one of Zimbabwe's true heroes.

Kate Hoey MP was a member of the first British Parliamentary delegation to Zimbabwe in 1990 and is Chair of the All-Party Parliamentary Group on Zimbabwe. She was an outspoken critic of former President Mugabe and was threatened with jail after her under cover visit to the country in 2005.
